Numb. 12394.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday December 3, to Saturday December 7, 1782.

Weſtminſter, December 5, 1782.

THIS Day His Majeſty came to the Houſe of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes, ſeated on the Throne with the uſual Solemnity, Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Uſher of the Black Rod, was ſent with a Meſſage from His Majeſty to the Houſe of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the Houſe of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majeſty was pleaſed to make the following moſt Gracious Speech:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

SINCE the Cloſe of the laſt Seſſions, I have employed My whole Time in the Care and Attention which the important and critical Conjuncture of Public Affairs required of Me.

I loſt no Time in giving the neceſſary Orders to prohibit the further Proſecution of offenſive War upon the Continent of North America. Adopting, as My Inclination will always lead Me to do, with Deciſion and Effect, whatever I collect to be the Senſe of My Parliament and My People; I have pointed all My Views and Meaſures, as well in Europe as in North America, to an entire and cordial Reconciliation with thoſe Colonies.

Finding it indiſpenſible to the Attainment of this Object, I did not heſitate to go the full Length of the Powers veſted in Me, and offered to declare them Free and Independent States, by an Article to be inſerted in the Treaty of Peace. Proviſional Articles are agreed upon, to take Effect whenever Terms of Peace ſhall be finally ſettled with the Court of France.

In thus admitting their Separation from the Crown of theſe Kingdoms, I have ſacrificed every Conſideration of My own to the Wiſhes and Opinion of My People. I make it my humble and earneſt Prayer to Almighty God, that Great Britain may not feel the Evils which might reſult from ſo great a Diſmemberment of the Empire; and, that America may be free from thoſe Calamities, which have formerly proved in the Mother Country how eſſential Monarchy is to the Enjoyment of Conſtitutional Liberty. Religion, — Language, — Intereſt, — Affections may, and I hope will yet prove a Bond of permanent Union between the Two Countries: To this End, neither Attention nor Diſpoſition ſhall be wanting on My Part.

While I have carefully abſtained from all offenſive Operations againſt America, I have directed My whole Force by Land and Sea againſt the other Powers at War, with as much Vigour as the Situation of that Force, at the Commencement of the Campaign, would permit. I truſt that you feel the Advantages reſulting from the Safety of the great Branches of Our Trade. You muſt have ſeen with Pride and Satisfaction the gallant Defence of the Governor and the Garriſon of Gibraltar; and My Fleet, after having effected the Object of their Deſtination, offering Battle to the Combined Force of France and Spain on their own Coaſts; thoſe of My Kingdoms have remained at the ſame Time perfectly ſecure, and your domeſtic Tranquillity uninterrupted. This reſpectable State, under the Bleſſing of God, I attribute to the entire Confidence which ſubſiſts between Me and My People, and to the Readineſs which has been ſhewn by My Subjects in My City of London, and in other Parts of My Kingdoms, to ſtand forth in the general Defence. Some Proofs have lately been given of Public Spirit in private Men, which would do Honour to any Age and any Country.

Having manifeſted to the whole World, by the moſt laſting Examples, the ſignal Spirit and Bravery of My People, I conceived it a Moment not unbecoming my Dignity, and thought it a Regard due to the Lives and Fortunes of ſuch brave and gallant Subjects, to ſhew Myſelf ready on My Part to embrace fair and honourable Terms of Accommodation with all the Powers at War.

I have the Satisfaction to acquaint you, that Negociations to this Effect are conſiderably advanced, the Reſult of which, as ſoon as they are brought to a Concluſion, ſhall be immediately communicated to you.

I have every Reaſon to hope and believe, that I ſhall have it in my Power in a very ſhort Time to acquaint you, that they have ended in Terms of Pacification, which, I truſt, you will ſee juſt Cauſe to approve.—I rely however with perfect Confidence on the Wiſdom of My Parliament and the Spirit of My People, that if any unforeſeen Change in the Diſpoſitions of the Belligerent Powers ſhould fruſtrate My confident Expectations, they will approve of the Preparations I have thought it adviſeable to make, and be ready to ſecond the moſt vigorous Efforts in the further Proſecution of the War.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I have endeavoured, by every Meaſure in My Power, to diminiſh the Burthens of my People.—I loſt no Time in taking the moſt decided Meaſures for introducing a better Œconomy into the Expenditure of the Army.

I have carried into ſtrict Execution the ſeveral Reductions in My Civil Liſt Expences, directed by an Act of the laſt Seſſions.—I have introduced a further Reform into other Departments, and ſuppreſſed ſeveral Sine Cure Places in them. I have by this Means ſo regulated My Eſtabliſhments, that My Expence ſhall not in future exceed My Income.

I have ordered the Eſtimate of the Civil Liſt Debt, laid before you laſt Seſſions, to be completed. The Debt proving ſomewhat greater than could be then correctly ſtated, and the propoſed Reduction not immediately taking Place, I truſt you will provide for the Deficiency, ſecuring, as before, the Repayment out of My annual Income.

I have ordered Enquiry to be made into the Application of the Sum voted in Support of the American rican Sufferers; and I truſt that you will agree with Me, that a due and generous Attention ought to be ſhewn to thoſe who have relinquiſhed their Properties or Profeſſions from Motives of Loyalty to Me, or Attachment to the Mother Country.

As it may be neceſſary to give Stability to ſome Regulations by Act of Parliament, I have ordered Accounts of the ſeveral Eſtabliſhments, incidental Expences, Fees, and other Emoluments of Office, to be laid before you. Regulations have already taken Place in ſome, which it is my Intention to extend to all, and which, beſides expediting all Public Buſineſs, muſt produce a very conſiderable Saving, without taking from that ample Encouragement, which ought to be held forth to Talents, Diligence, and Integrity, wherever they are to be found.

I have directed an Enquiry to be made into whatever regards the landed Revenue of My Crown, as well as the Management of My Woods and Foreſts, that both may be made as beneficial as poſſible, and that the latter may furniſh a certain Reſource for ſupplying the Navy, Our great National Bulwark, with its firſt Material.

I have directed an Inveſtigation into the Department of the Mint, that the Purity of the Coin, of ſo much Importance to Commerce, may be always adhered to; that by rendering the Difficulty of counterfeiting greater, the Lives of Numbers may be ſaved, and every needleſs Expence in it ſuppreſſed.

I muſt recommend to you an immediate Attention to the great Objects of the Public Receipts and Expenditure; and above all to the State of the Public Debt.—Notwithſtanding the great Increaſe of it during the War, it is to be hoped that ſuch Regulations may ſtill be eſtabliſhed—ſuch Savings made—and future Loans ſo conducted, as to promote the Means of its gradual Redemption by a fixed Courſe of Payment.—I muſt, with particular Earneſtneſs, diſtinguiſh for your ſerious Conſideration, that Part of the Debt which conſiſts of Navy, Ordnance, and Victualling Bills: The enormous Diſcount upon ſome of theſe Bills ſhews this Mode of Payment to be a moſt ruinous Expedient.

I have ordered the ſeveral Eſtimates, made up as correctly as the preſent Practice would admit, to be laid before you. I hope that ſuch further Corrections as may be neceſſary, will be made before the next Year. It is My Deſire that you ſhould be apprized of every Expence before it is incurred, as far as the Nature of each Service can poſſibly admit.—Matters of Account can never be made too public.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

The Scarcity, and conſequent high Price of Corn, requires your inſtant Interpoſition.

The great Exceſs to which the Crimes of Theft and Robbery, in many Inſtances accompanied with perſonal Violence, particularly in the Neighbourhood of this Metropolis, has called of late for a ſtrict and ſevere Execution of the Laws. It were much to be wiſhed that theſe Crimes could be prevented in their Infancy, by correcting the Vices become prevalent in a moſt alarming Degree.

The liberal Principles adopted by you concerning the Rights and the Commerce of Ireland, have done you the higheſt Honour, and will, I truſt, increaſe that Harmony, which ought always to ſubſiſt between the two Kingdoms. I am perſuaded that a general Increaſe of Commerce throughout the Empire, will prove the Wiſdom of your Meaſures with regard to that Object. I would recommend to you a Reviſion of Our whole Trading Syſtem upon the ſame comprehenſive Principles, with a View to its utmoſt poſſible Extenſion.

The Regulation of a vaſt Territory in Aſia opens a large Field for your Wiſdom, Prudence, and Foreſight. I truſt that you will be able to frame ſome fundamental Laws, which may make their Connection with Great Britain a Bleſſing to India; and that you will take therein proper Meaſures to give all Foreign Nations, in Matters of Foreign Commerce, an entire and perfect Confidence in the Probity, Punctuality, and good Order of Our Government. You may be aſſured that whatever depends upon Me, ſhall be executed with a Steadineſs, which can alone preſerve that Part of My Dominions, or the Commerce which ariſes from it

It is the fixed Object of My Heart, to make the general Good, and the true Spirit of the Conſtitution, the invariable Rule of My Conduct, and on all Occaſions to advance and reward Merit in every Profeſſion.

To enſure the full Advantage of a Government conducted on ſuch Principles, depends on your Temper, your Wiſdom, your Diſintereſtedneſs, collectively and individually.

My People expect theſe Qualifications of you: and I call for them.

Whitehall, November 30, 1782.

WHereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that, in the Night between Monday the 21st and Tuesday the 22d of October last, some Person or Persons unknown maliciously set on Fire a Barn, situated on a Farm in the Parish of Melbury Osmond in the County of Dorset, the Property of the Countess Dowager of Ilchester, in the Occupation of Mrs. Susanna Stone, by which the said Barn, together with a considerable Quantity of Corn therein, and also Two Ricks of Corn near adjoining thereto, were entirely consumed; and that in the same Night Two Hay-Ricks on a distant Part of the said Farm were also set on Fire and burnt: And whereas it has been also represented, that, in the Night between Monday the 18th and Tuesday the 19th of this instant November, another Barn, on Melbury Sampford Farm in the said County, also the Property of the said Countess Dowager of Ilchester, and in the Occupation of Farmer John Gill, was likewise maliciously set on Fire by some Person or Persons unknown, and, together with a considerable Quantity of Corn therein, was also entirely consumed: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Offences above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

T TOWNSHEND.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Countess Dowager of Ilchester offers a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to any Person making such Discovery as above mentioned, to be paid by her Steward, Mr. John Field, upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.
